REPORT OF FULLER PUBLIC LIBRARY

We submit herewith report of the Fuller Public Library for the year ending December 31, 1949.

We wish to express our gratitude for the many gifts of books and magazines. It should be noted that the adult circulation is gradually increasing each year. There has been a greater call for non-fiction. Because of the efficient service offered by the State Library it has been possible to meet all requests by borrowing, when books are not available in the home library.

Report of Administration

The School Board: Anton Johnson, chairman; Andrew Sargent, and Richard Withington.

Superintendent of Schools: Stewart V. McCormack.

School Nurse: Anna Bailey, R. N.

Truant Officer: Andrew Sargent.

School Physician: Dr. Thor Olson.

Teachers: Mrs. Ruth Fisher, Lower Village school; Miss Susan Pierce, Flat school; Miss Margaret Milliken, Center school; Mrs. Olive Fullam, Upper Village School.

GENERAL REPORT

It has been wisely said that communities with good schools for all children, are marked by certain attitudes and activities. Adults in such communities show sincere interest in all children. They seem to be constantly saying to themselves and to others, "Our children are important to us. We want to give them a better chance than we had. We consider the children of greatest importance to our community, they're very dependent on us, and they're certainly entitled to our serious thought, consideration, and sacrifice. They are our only real, present investment in the world of tomorrow."

Communities which recognize their responsibilities to children do more than talk about good education. They take action to provide good educational programs in adequate schools which really meet the needs of children.

At the last annual meeting, the district voted to have a committee investigate the possibilities of a new central school to replace our four old ones. The committee chosen was made up of: W. Earl Lutts, Henry Baldwin, and Harold Harvey. A majority report of that committee recently submitted to your school board urged the immediate initiation of a program to build the much needed school. Consequently your school board has included the necessary articles in the district warrant.

Every one in the district knows of the extreme need for such a new building. The committee has given the school board the go-ahead sign. The school board has inserted the proper articles in the warrant.

When the votes for and against the new building are counted, we'll all know how many in the Hillsboro Town School District are talkers about good education and how many are willing to do more than talk.

To make it clearly apparent what such a program will probably cost you, the first interest and principal payments on such a bond issue as would probably be needed to build the school, are included in the proposed budget. There is no attempt here to force such a bond issue on anyone. If it isn't voted, this amount can be subtracted from the proposed budget.

Your district has an exceptional tradition in the fine schools it has built and maintained in the past. The very excellence of this tradition, however, must not serve to check the march of time and interfere with the building of an educational system to meet the needs of today. We can't maintain leadership in education with memories alone. We desperately need a new school house right away.

The great spirit of cooperation between teachers, parents, and pupils during the past year has been a source of great benefit to our educational program. The school board has worked diligently to constantly maintain and improve our program. In such a spirit of cooperation we now look ahead and face our next problem; that of providing a modern school building.

Respectfully submitted,

STEWART V. McCORMACK

THE GENERAL REPORT

The problems of present-day education are revolved around the question of exactly what will our boys and girls need for educational background to take them adequately through at least the next thirty or forty years of life. Frequently we meet the person who has to have penicillin or one of the other latest drugs for his ailment, has the latest television set and automobile or has the latest electrical gadgets in his kitchen; and yet is sincerely convinced that when it come to education, the old methods of education are everlastingly good. Obviously these views are at least inconsistent and can be dangerous to the welfare of the community. Our educational objectives are influenced by our conception of how the child learns and of how the social setting in which he lives affects that learning. Science has made tremendous strides in developing knowledge along these lines just as it has in the field of human comfort.

WORKSHOP FOR TEACHERS AND PARENTS

For five days in November, parents and teachers from this whole area, met in Henniker to study together, some of the latest knowledge concerning the ways children learn and current objectives of education. The response of parents from Hillsboro who attended was extremely gratifying. Much progress was made in mutual understandings of school problems. Guidance for the workshop was provided by personnel from the University of New Hampshire, the State Department of Education, Plymouth Teachers' College, and the United States Office of Education.

SCHOLARSHIP GOALS

The primary job of our schools is to help each child develop his skills in the so-called tool subjects such as reading, arithmetic, spelling and language. We know that there seems to be no certain age at which every child begins to walk, or feed himself, or talk, etc. Similarly, not many people and particularly few teachers expect every child to learn any certain thing at any certain age. An understanding of this concept is important to the welfare of your children for education is no longer a lockstep enterprise in which all children in a classroom can be expected to be doing the same thing simultaneously.

Last year we published studies of scholastic achievement in the High School showing the steady progress we've made in up-grading the work of the pupils in tool subjects. To avoid repetition we are not repeating the tables here. We have continued the study this year with the same good results and the charts are available in the office of Mr. Bernard. Examination of records of our new graduates now attending colleges reveals that at least two are listed on the Dean's lists for honors in scholarship. The others are all doing very satisfactory college work.

The record of our college attendants is most gratifying but no less so are the records of our graduates who are working in actual life positions such as secretarial.

Your school has seriously expanded its training in the non-academic fields because this is very important to a large percentage of the graduates.

SCHOOL FINANCE

The cost of operating your schools during the last school year was lower in each of the three classifications than the state average. The classifications are: Elementary (Grades 1-8), High (Grades 9-12), and whole (Grades 1-12). Because of the inattention to our needs by the past legislature, our statistical surveys usually available from the state, are not available this year.

Likewise because the legislature was otherwise engaged and could not seriously enact a state aid program, for schools, your local tax had to make up for the $13,300.00 which was lost in State Aid.

Your school finance program is now operating at an absolute minimum. We are not able to provide for depreciation of the costly buildings we're using. Someday soon, someone will object to bonding the district for new schoolrooms because they won't want to tax future generations. To avoid this, some districts are putting the value of depreciation on school buildings into capital reserve funds. If this generation can't afford to "Pay as You Go" which we hear so much about, we might as well admit it.

Part of the answer lies in the fact that property can no longer bear the whole tax load. The State Aid program enacted by the 1947 legislature provided real financial assistance to towns such as Hillsboro where the money was needed. The 1949 legislature chose to complain about the formula and everything else having to do with the aid program. It finally took the state backwards thirty years to the 1919 formula and appropriated less than 20% of the funds needed.

Schools have to have money to operate. If you look at our budget, you will notice that it costs you less than two dollars per day per child for everything in your school budget, but the total is staggering when loaded on the local property alone.

In 1873, property such as a farm was the only means by which one could earn a living, so property was the tax base. Now a house has very little earning capacity. But we have to use it to raise our money on because the 1949 legislature couldn't really face the issue of our needs. The constitution says that education is a responsibility of the state with certain responsibilities delegated locally.

NEW FURNITURE SORELY NEEDED

Your School Board has been very attentive to trends and problems in current education. They were active participants in the Workshop. They have attended area School Board Meetings and meetings of the State Boards Association. Consequently their educational policies are refreshingly modern and reflective of intensive study.

The new budget provides for the replacement of two rooms of obsolete furniture at the grammar school. The new furniture will be of the table and chair type, providing maximum flexibility and comfort as required by our educational programs. The same type of furniture is just as sorely needed at the high school to provide for better teaching arrangement and pupil accommodation.

Two years ago we initiated a new lighting program at the high school but have been held up because of a lack of funds. The total lighting program will not be completed for some time perhaps. Modern lighting systems also require modern painting for maximum efficiency.

CAN DEMOCRACY BE TAUGHT?

A newspaper recently expressed intense surprise that so many highly intellectual people apparently were susceptible to the lures of Communism or some other "ism." Those who have studied education and its responsibilities have long ago discovered that democracy has to be thoroughly experienced in the classroom if it is to be understood and be lived by these, children become adults.

Educators know that the book-worms so-called may likely not come to love and understand the democratic way of life, unless they really experience this way of life. School life has to be such as to let them live through real situations common to the democratic process. To achieve such of democratic living thoroughly, themselves. For some time practise will require teachers who understand the process now we have relied on the stories of wars and treaties to inculcate in our boys and girls, a burning love for our democracy. Democracy never has meant any such a thing to any one and consequently we have a world of people, some of whom give lip service to democratic theories, but we find few who understand democracy as a way of life.

Teachers and parents too must emphasize the reasons for its success. Children have to learn now to live democratically in their schools and communities. Some schools will take longer than others to adopt a democratic way of life. When all children in our schools live and understand the basic principles involved, democracy will win, over any "ism" and a stronger democracy can force a lasting peace on the world, because of its intense effectiveness.

As Dr. Edgar Fuller, our former Commissioner of Education so aptly put it: "New times demand new schools. Rote learning, lock-step teaching, 'busy work' which wheedles hours away in meaningless memorizing or pointless copying are not suited to the needs of growing boys and girls. Neither, are dingy, dark, and unsanitary buildings, creaking with memories which only the elders, looking back, revere.---The young people in our schools should be living happily and working hopefully as friends and neighbors, building together a commonwealth of good citizens for a peaceful world."

CONCLUSION

It has been a privilege and real pleasure to work during the past year with Mr. Mason, Mr. Martin and Mrs. Tasker in solving educational problems pertaining to the local schools. The loyal and energetic participation in the educational program by Mrs. Murdough and Mr. Bernard and their fellow teachers has been dramatically reflected in the improved school programs. To all these and the parents and pupils who also participate daily in our program, we are deeply grateful for aiding in the promotion of better educational opportunities for the boys and girls of Hillsboro. Young people, by nature, look ahead. When we work with them, we too, have to look ahead.

Respectfully submitted,

STEWART V. McCORMACK

HEADMASTER'S REPORT

Mr. Stewart McCormack,
Superintendent of Schools

My dear Mr McCormack:

The most significant educational development during the preceeding year and a half has been the tremendous interest of the citizens of Hillsboro in its schools. At the high school level, this interest has ben manifested in capacity attendance at school functions such as: Graduation, the minstrel show, "Club '50," basketball games, and the physical education--home economics--shop exhibitions. Individual citizens have graciously cooperated with us in our work experience program. We are indebted to Mr. Walter Sterling, Mr. Walter Heath, Mr. Marshall Derby, Mr. James Hines and Miss Lisabel Gay for their cooperation with the shop and commercial departments in our work experience program. Dr. Harrison Baldwin is donating his efforts in building a high school band. The Community Association, through a committee composed of Mr. Earl Lutts, chairman, Dr. Whitney S. K. Yeaple, Dr. Harrison Baldwin and Mr. James Hines have enriched the curriculum by arranging for a series of outstanding career speakers to aid our pupils in making prudent vocational plans. Dr. Mildred Chamberlin and our junior and senior girls have discussed marriage and its problems together. Mr. Cyrus Phelps has given fine aid to our Photography Club. The directors of the newly formed ski club, Dr. Henry Baldwin, Mr. John Tasker, Mr. Harry Nissen, Mr. Bernie Pierce and Miss Kay Carew are aiding in planning the annual winter carnival. The Fortnightly Club is offering an annual Senior Scholarship. Such splendid cooperation and interest is a source of inspiration for myself and my faculty.

In the annual Senior class tests conducted by the University of New Hampshire or the State Department of Education, the class of 1950 scored substantially better than average on both state and national scales. I am pleased to note that our Senior class scored very substantially above the national average on the Iowa Tests of Educational Development.

The High School enrollment has reached an all time high. Our September enrollment is as follows: Seniors; Boys, 17; Girls, 21; Juniors; Boys, 15; Girls, 9; Sophomores;

Boys, 21; Girls, 17: Freshmen; Boys, 14; Girls, 22; 7th Grade; Boys, 15; Girls, 19; 8th Grade; Boys, 13; Girls, 12; Total, 195.

I wish to thank the Superintendent of Schools, the Board of Education, Nurse Bailey, the faculty of Hillsboro High School and the citizens of Hillsboro for their fine co-operation.

Respectfully,

SERGIUS J. BERNARD

Headmaster

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION

Schools opened September 7, 1949 with an enrollment of 309 pupils and a faculty of 16 teachers. Sergius Bernard, Headmaster, and Louis Shopes as Sub-master of High School, and Mrs. Louise Murdough, Principal of Elementary School.

We are all very much pleased and encouraged by the progress the children have been making these last three years. These improvements are shown by the result of the Iowa Educational Development test.

The Board of Education had planned to make several necessary improvements both in High School and Elementary Buildings, but we did not receive any state aid this year. We could only do what was absolutely necessary and hope that we may be able to do something further along these lines the next year.

The School Lunch Program is going along very nicely under the supervision of Mrs. Elsie Mosley and her assistant, Mrs. Ione Nelson. Due to the generosity of several organizations in town we have been able to give free lunches to those unable to pay.

We do feel very grateful to the late George W. Haslet for the gift of $75,000.00, the revenue from which is to be used for the benefit of the High School. We hold him in very high esteem for the man he was and the very generous contributions he made to the town.

The Board wishes at this time to thank Superintendent Stewart McCormack, Headmaster Sergius Bernard and teachers for their cooperation in trying to build our schools up to a high scholastic standing.

The regular meeting of the School Board is held the first Wednesday of each month at 7:30 p.m. Anyone having problems which they would like to discuss with the Board are welcome at that meeting.

A LIVING PLACE FOR CHILDREN

This room demonstrates a practical school-room. Its structure, decoration and equipment carry out the principles of function, simplicity, and adequacy. No extraneous properties or decorations encumber the atmosphere. Windows are low, spacious, and beautiful, providing maximum natural lighting. Unbroken wall space is restful and provides space for "occasional" pictures, for bulletin boards, and for easel work. Large cupboards and a filing cabinet are recessed. Shelves for supplies, paper, radio, and books are built-in. A work covered shelf for "messy work" and a sink and hand-washing culminate the dream of every teacher.

Movable chairs and table adaptable to every possible use, individual or group, plenty of books for book-learning, and tools, easels and paints for more practical experiences—these make school a place for living.
